

Work Sector Conservation/Leisure
Client Scottish Film Council
Location Lothian Road, Edinburgh
Cost circa £1m
Date completed 1989

Considered and careful conversion of an historic B listed church in the centre of Edinburgh into a cinema complex.

The project comprised a principle auditorium formed in the main church whilst retaining the original stained glass windows. A second smaller auditorium in the church hall plus a private screening facility. A bar, restaurant, exhibition space and shop were also formed around the reception area.

Filmhouse, Edinburgh

LEWIS AND HICKEY